

Minutes General Assembly Amsterdam Wednesday June 25th 2014, 15.30-16.15

Present: 75 members

1) Welcome from the Congress President

2) The Minutes of the General Assembly of Toulouse, published in Rhinology Journal are accepted.

3) Report of President

Prof. Wytske Fokkens thanks the audience for coming to Amsterdam and announces that there are over 1600 participants from 99 countries at the congress. She is especially very happy that so many young people found their way to Amsterdam and that the Journal Rhinology was able to award travel grants to over 50 junior members to enable them to be at the congress.

The president especially thanks the sponsors and exhibitors and shows a video of an impression of the congress made by Jochem Bretschneider

4) Report of General Secretary

The Secretary General, Prof. Valerie Lund, thanks Wytske Fokkens for her excellent job in organizing this great and specular congress.

She is happy to announce that the membership of ERS keeps growing. The ERS now has 2040 members from 82 countries. There has been an increase in membership and Junior Members (who can have free membership up to 35 years old) in the last years.

The general secretary promotes block memberships for national rhinologic societies: a way for rhinologic societies to obtain the advantages of membership and online access to Rhinology at a significantly reduced price. ERS membership gives a profit of 10% on ERS courses.

For their special merit to Rhinology in general and contributions to the ERS Honorary memberships were upon David Kennedy and Carel Verwoerd.

The clinical and basic research prize of 1500 euro each were awarded to:

Ms. Laura van Gerven, Leuven, Belgium for her paper:

'Capsaicin treatment reduces nasal hyper-reactivity and transient receptor potential cation channel subfamily V, receptor 1 (TRPV1) over-expression in patients with idiopathic rhinitis' (basic prize)

and to Ms. Lien Calus from Gent, Belgium for her paper:

'Twelve year follow-up study after endoscopic sinus surgery in patients with chronic rhinosinusitis with nasal polyposis' (clinical prize)

Furthermore the GS announces our brand new ERS website with new interesting information, video's and new updates.

5) Report of the Treasurer

The treasurer, Claire Hopkins announced that ERS has a stable and healthy bank account.

6) Report of Editor in Chief

Valerie Lund announces that she demits office as Editor in Chief after 15 years. The last years she was sharing the editor in Chief position with Wytske Fokkens who has agreed continue.

Peter Hellings and Christos Georgalas will serve as associate editors.

We have a very steady numbers of issues every year 4 issues a year, except for 2013 when we had 5 issues due to a significant backlog. We now have a stable 96 pages per issue. Since 2010 we do not accept Case Reports anymore. The acceptance rate is around 15%. The paper is online within 6 weeks after acceptance, in print takes usually longer 6-9 months.

We expect the impact factor to be around 2.4 in 2014, which will be the top 15% of the Otorhinolaryngological papers.

We have a large group of reviewers, some are very active some are less active. It has been decided in the board meeting that from next year on the board will consist of the 30-35 best and most active reviewers. The editor in chief will when necessary adds another 5 reviewers on very special subjects.

Wyske Fokkens thanks the top reviewers (most papers and fastest turn around in 2012-2014) Nick Jones, Phillipe Eloy and Mark Jorissen for their excellent contribution.

We have started with a Rhinology App for iPhone/Android and tablets this year.
